June 2008

Summer arrived in Rainbow Oregon with robust colors, pure smells, a flowing river and fish biting and it is waiting for you to enjoy. With gas prices high, we encourage you to take advantage of what we can offer you for your summer plans. Rainbow is located right on the McKenzie River with many hours of rafting, fishing, hiking, golfing and sightseeing. After your adventurous day, relax in one of our beautiful cabins with your own private deck overlooking the McKenzie River itself. You won't realize that you did not have to travel very far to enjoy this luxurious vacation. With 8 wonderful cabins and houses which accommodate quite the retreat or family reunion, you are surely to find peace. Visit our website to see our newly remolded homes with spectacular views of the historical McKenzie River.

Holiday Farm Resort opened a spa on site in March, which has become a very popular personal treat. We are hoping to open our pedicure phase soon. Enclosed you will find our menu. Everyone is invited to relax with a massage in our historical farmhouse. With state of the art equipment and a private room with a massage therapist on duty everyday, plan on being pampered. Also, our summer concerts begin June 21st in our meadow with a BBQ dinner. We feature different bands each weekend. Keep an eye on our website to see who is coming. In September, Valley boys will be here. Watch for them! We look forward to seeing you join our local family.

From June 27th through July 6th of 2008, America's most elite track and field athletes will gather at the University of Oregon's Hayward Field in Eugene, Oregon. Their sole purpose will be to compete for a coveted position as a member of Team USA for the 2008 Summer Games to be held in Beijing. Track Town, USA will once again host the most important pre-Olympic event in the country. Hundreds of thousands of visitors are expected to flock to the Eugene-Springfield area to witness the event. We are pleased to announce that one of the competitors stayed in one of our beautiful homes here at the Holiday Farm Resort. We are proud to be a mile post in their Olympic journey and we are very excited to see America take the title.

We are pleased to announce that we have begun our Sunday Brunches again. Enclosed you will find a coupon and we encourage you to take advantage of our delightful array of brunch items. We also will be open for lunch on July 19th for the 9th annual home and garden tour on the McKenzie River featuring 6 homes.
